Cast Their Shadows Before.

Coming events cast their shadows before them. The writer is led to believe this because several incidents in the lives of his parents corroborate

In the summer of 187- my father late at night was returning to his farm from the little town of Malton. He had stayed unusually late. When he reached the farm all was quiet. Removing the harness from his horse, he proceeded to the carriage house and hung it in its place. He came out and closed the door. As he did so he heard the harness fall. It was very dark. He went back into the house and found the harness still hang Sugar (sack basis)-D.
